

Pet Lovers Prioritize Pet Health During the COVID-19 Crisis

The human-animal bond is stronger than ever.

Preventive health care for pets remains accessible and essential.

81% of owners are spending more time with their pets.

79% are glad they can be with their pets more.

41% of owners have called or texted their veterinarian during the crisis.

19% of owners have stocked up on pet food and medications.

87% of pet owners are rescheduling vet appointments.

100% of pet owners should keep their pets on heartworm preventives and call their vet when refills are needed.

75% say their pets help them feel calm.

